WealthPoint Announces New Business Advisory Partner

Financial and Business Advisory Firm Expanding in Denver Marketplace

DENVER, January 8, 2018 – WealthPoint, a leading provider of business and life insurance advisory services with a focus on succession, exit and wealth transfer planning to entrepreneurial family groups and affluent clients throughout the U.S., is expanding their Denver office with the hiring of Peter Miterko, J.D., its newest Business Advisory Partner. "Bringing Peter to our team enables us to expand our business advisory services to the Denver market," said WealthPoint's Managing Partner, Ryan Barradas. "Peter's extensive background in the executive compensation and business governance sectors will be an excellent resource for our business advisory clients. His reputation and experience are second to none and he will allow us to expand our growing business advisory practice."

Peter is an attorney with more than 20 years' experience in both executive compensation and business governance consulting. In 2015, Peter returned to Denver after working 7 years for the New York office of a global executive compensation consulting firm. Peter has consulted to more than 150 compensation committees of public, privately held, and not for profit organizations, and he has taken on numerous assignments for management, as well. His core belief and determination to put his client's needs first, are directly aligned with WealthPoint's mantra, Know your story™.

"I'm eagerly looking forward to joining the WealthPoint team," says Peter. "I'm excited to join a firm that has the dedicated staff and best practices and processes in place to allow me to deliver tremendous value to our entrepreneurial and affluent clientele."
