

Ryan F. Barradas, CLU®
Managing Partner

As WealthPoint's founder, Ryan brings more than 25 years' experience and background in business, finance and insurance. He helps his clients crystallize their goals and objectives from a family, business and personal perspective. With the WealthPoint Team and the clients' advisors he creates a synergy of talent, education, and resources; providing a dynamic multidisciplinary team approach in creating and implementing innovative and efficient planning solutions.

Ryan is also a nationally recognized expert in succession and exit planning, complex estate planning, and sophisticated life insurance planning for entrepreneurial and ultra-affluent family groups and has spoken to many industry and trade association groups nationally.

Ryan balances professional leadership with community involvement and time with his family. Ryan is a member of the PartnersFinancial Advisory Board of Directors, President of the prestigious national study group, The McGehee Group and board member of the PartnersFinancial Charitable Foundation. WealthPoint is an active member of Exit Planning Institute (EPI), Central Arizona Estate Planning Council (CAEPC) and Finseca. He is an avid supporter of First Place of Arizona and Childhelp and is active in many other community activities. In his leisure time Ryan is an avid golfer, sports fan, and most importantly a father and husband. He and his wife Tyra reside in Paradise Valley, Arizona and are the parents to three children, Trevor, Baylee and Gracee.
